Our Mission
To provide leadership, education and advocacy to enhance the ability of Ohio’s nonprofit organizations to serve their communities.

Serve
OANO fulfills its mission by providing programs, services and resources to strengthen the management, governance and leadership of nonprofit organizations.

Increasing from 2017, more than 575 organizations and over 2,600 of their employees, board members, and volunteers were OANO members.

OANO members utilize benefits to help their organization run efficiently and effectively to make a greater impact in their communities.

We serve as a voice on public policy issues and work to build the capacity of Ohio’s nonprofit organizations to participate in the public policy process.

We are leaders in research, education, and information sharing to broaden stakeholders knowledge about Ohio’s diverse nonprofit sector.

Strengthen
In OANO’s most recent members survey, 95% of members would recommend OANO to their peers.

Using a 5-point scale, OANO consistently receives a 4.5 or higher in satisfaction and attendees report an increase of knowledge from 2.9 to 4.3

591 attendees participated in our Capacity Building Sessions including our Standards for Excellence Clinic Series. The Capacity Building Series is designed to address the core competencies deemed necessary to successfully lead and manage a nonprofit organization.

1200 registrants participated in our Lunch and Learn Webinars, Partner Updates, Ask the Expert and Educational Webinars

123 participants have registered for the First Friday Legislative Update Calls through September.

Nearly 225 sample policies and procedures were requested by member organizations.

Over 380 job openings have been posted in 2018 so far.

9 Organizations received the Standards for Excellence Voluntary Accreditation

2,728 nonprofit professionals were reached with OANO’s education programs
Finances
2018 (thru September)
Total Income $167,974
Total Expenses $132,806
Net Operating Income $35,168

Thanks
Thank you to our members, sponsors, funders, and partners for supporting OANO’s statewide programs, initiatives, and events. We appreciate the opportunity to serve Ohio’s nonprofit sector.
